HE HAS COME BACK

Little Frankie Owen Is Brought Home From lewa.

HIS FATHER FOUND HIM THERE

He Was in the Industrial School, but the Matron Obtained His Secret From Him and Had Him Write Home.

Owomo, Mich., Feb. 26.-George W. Owen, editor of the Shiawassee American, has returned home with his son Frankie, who mysteriously disappeared June 1 last, and who was not heard from until last week. Mrs. Owen and other members of the family were overjoyed at the boy's return and citizens universally share with them in their happiness.

Frankie, after being frightened by his school teacher for carrying an old and disabled revolver, took the train and went to Grand Rapida. From there he walked a few miles and went to Muskegon, where he took a boat for Milwaukee. From there he went directly through to lowa, walking a part of the way, and arrived in Hardin county before the last of June. He sought employment among the farmers and remained in that locality thrill December 1, when he was taken to the state industrial achool, located at Eldora. At school Mra. Stohl, wife of the family manager who had immediate charge of him, became interested in him and asked him who he really was. He told her the secret which he had kept until that time, and then wrote home, his letter reaching here February 12.

HIS OFFICIAL OPINION.

The Attorney-General Defines the Elec-

LANSING, Feb. 26 .- Attorney-General Ellie has filed an opinion on the rew election law as applied to local elections in cities, villages and townships. He first holds that act 190, as limited by act 194, applies to all local elections; act 194, applies to all local elections; that the provisions of the general law are still applicable so far as it refers to the board of election inspectors, the declaration of the result. It is the duty of the township board to print the tickets for all parties and that no vignette or heading for the ballot, other than the name of the party, shall be necessary. Section three of the act provides that "the names of candidates aball be given in by the committees of shall be given in by the committees of the various political organizations, to the board of election commissioners, not less than five days before each elec-law, and hold a nominating caucus or

No election district or voting precinct shall contain more than 500 electors according to the poll lists of the last preceding general election. When any election district or voting precinct shall contain over 500 electors it shall be the duty of the township board in townships, and the city council in cities, te divide such voting precincts into two or more election districts.

or more election districts.

A person who wants to be a candidate for office is entitled to have his name on the ticket and if it is not printed on the regular ballot he can have it written in or pasted on as slips. Such ballots whether written or shpped should be counted as though the ticket was regularly printed, but the slipping must be done in the booth.

In case the division is made in a township or incorporated village, the provisions of Howell's Statutes are to apply.

apply.

If the division is made in cities, the common council has power to make all necessary rules and regulations in connection therewith, to fully carry out the provisions of the law.

THROUGH A SHOW WINDOW. A Runaway Team Creates Havoc at

ITRACA, Feb. 25 .- About 2 o'clock yesterday morning a barn containing a valuable stallion named Oscar, owned by E. T. Edwards, caught fire, burning barn and horse.

On Tuesday a runaway team came into town from the east. The street was lined with teams at the time and the runaways collided with a buggy, knocking down the horse. The frightened team ran over the horse knocked down, jumped over the horse knocked down, jumped over an iron hitching railing, across the sidewalk and into the large glass front of Heath's hardware, breaking out one side. They were stopped here. No one was injured.

A reward of $25 is offered by the warden for his capture, and he is described as follows: Age, 30; weight, about 200; fair complexion, light brown hair, heavy mustache of light brown color, large forehead, nose and mouth, hazel eyes, end of first finger of left hand misshapen, cut on inside of left thand pear thumb, wart on back of left shoulder, dressed in praon gray.

Persy A. Matthews of Detroit met a horrible death the other day. He was an employe of the Sulphite Fiber works and tong missed from his place, search was made with the result that search was made with the result that his remains were found in a vat of silphuric seid. He is supposed to have been overcome by the furnes of the acid and fallen in head first. He was literally parboiled. He leaves a wife to whom he had been married only three days.

The famous libel suit of Kinney vs. A. Neal Brown, formerly of the Northwestern Tribune of Mt. Pleasant, for $10,000 damages has been settled by plaintiff taking a judgment by consent for $51 and costs. The case grew out of Brown's criticism of Mrs. Kinney as a member of the board of supervisors, some three years ago, in which a personal attack was made upon the plaintoff.

James Oswald, brakeman on the F. & P. M., received probably fatal injuries while coupling ears at Reed City. Thursday. His right shoulder and three ribs were broken, but he was dragged from under the cars, before being run over, by John Schrimer, brakeman of another train, who saw him fail.

The latest musical invention is credited to G. H. Peddler, a mechanic employed at the Nelson piano works at Muskegon. The instrument looks like an upright piano with seven octaves and three full set of reeds, besides the sub-bass. It will be patented and a company organized to manufacture it.

Last December Charles Jewell of Mt.
Picasant, made an attempt at felonious assault upon a 12-year-o.d girl at Loomis, Isabella county. A warrant was issued for his arrest but he cluded the officers and fled. The other day he returned and was promptly jailed. Jewell is 24 years old and has a wife.
